

Tomorrow Starts Today & The Future Becomes Today

Lyrics by Tom Meyers a.k.a Fitfull

I couldn't let my futures drift away,
Wouldn't let my goals fall in decay,
Cause I see what could be,
Want to love what I see,
Our future's built today.

And I won't let my angstly fears so strong
Cause my every choices go down wrong
No the past is amis,
Change is in this,
Tomorrow starts today.

I haven't got the time to rest just yet,
With so much life, new paths to set.
I'm breaking through,
Redesigning you,
In every step I take.

Leaving shadows of the past behind,
Walking forward with the future in mind.
I know there's more and more, want more than this
Tomorrow's here to stay.
Tomorrow's here to stay.

Been clearing paths that been holding me back,
Choosing the paths of light with every step.
I think what we need, a future more sweet,
I'm going for it all the way.

Kicking open doors to all my dreams,
Designing futures I have never seen.
I draw everything,
All that's promising,
Hope pulls forth today.

I haven't got the time to rest just yet,
With so much life, new paths to set.
I'm breaking through,
Redesigning you,
In every step I take.

Leaving shadows of the past behind,
Walking forward with the future in mind.
I know there's more and more, want more than this
Tomorrow's here to stay.

Been clearing paths that been holding me back,
Choosing the paths of light with every step.
I think what we need, a future more sweet,
I'm going for it all the way.

Evolving is a treat, it makes me complete,
The future becomes today,

Our future's here to stay.
Our future's here to stay.

Evolving is a treat it turns our lives complete,
I feel human, being human ones again.
